HOLMFIRTH MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Holmfirth Musical Festival was the brainchild of a few committee members of Holmfirth Feast Sing, who, at the end of the second world war decided that it would be good to have a competitive musical festival in Holmfirth. The Festival was run for many years by a committee formed from the Sing committee. It has always been held in Holmfirth Civic Hall during October, featuring vocal and piano classes for children on the Thursday and Friday, then adult classes on the Saturday. In the early years there were upwards of 30 children competing in each piano class, and these classes were held during the day on Friday. More recently numbers have dwindled somewhat (although standards of performance have if anything improved), and classes are now held only outside school times. Instrumental classes were introduced in the 1990s, and nowadays although the adult classes are held on the Saturday, some children's classes also take place on the Saturday. We also now have the prestigious Rotary Millennium Trophy class, attracting young people who are taking their music very seriously.

This year's competition will be the 72nd, with the 17th Rotary Millennium Trophy class.

Welcome to Holmfirth Musical Festival's 72nd Annual Competition.

We recently introduced a set of Instrumental Ensemble classes for young people. These are open both to school and independent groups, but for convenience the age requirements for the younger classes are in terms of school year rather than age on October 1st. Ensembles may be of any size (limited by the size of the Civic Hall platform) and any combination of instruments is permitted. Performers should bring their own music stands. One player may use the piano on stage if required. All players should be amateurs. There is also an all-age instrumental class, which is aimed at groups consisting of mixed ages, including adults, and can be of any type/mix of instruments. If we have a large entry in this class, we reserve the right to further subdivide it.

Please note that there are reduced entry fees for multiple entries by one competitor (see page 4).

Please note that the qualification for entry in the Rotary Club of Holmfirth Millennium Trophy competition, now includes entrants who have previously supported the Festival but who live outside the geographical limit (see page 14). Young people who intend to take up a musical career are encouraged to enter this class.

We hope to have an increased number of entries in the children's instrumental classes (classes 1, 2 and 3) and if so, we intend to subdivide these classes into woodwind, brass and strings (see page 8).

The children's choirs class (page 13), has in recent years proved to be very popular. We are of course pleased with this, but also somewhat embarrassed because the Civic Hall can barely accommodate all the singers and their audience. We have investigated the possibility of moving this class to a larger venue, but this is not possible. Accordingly, for Health and Safety reasons, we have decided to limit the number of singers per choir to 40. Furthermore, entries will be accepted in order of receipt of applications, up to the available seating capacity for competitors. We hope that choirs will understand the reason for these measures.

If you are a trophy holder from the 2016 Festival, we would appreciate its return as you agreed, in good condition, by August 31st 2017. In recent years it has been an onerous task for our volunteers to prepare the trophies because of the amount of chasing needed.

We would also appreciate your cooperation in filling in the entry form. The forms are split up into classes on receipt, and again it takes our volunteers extra time to search for information required to compile the programme when items have been omitted from the form. Please check that you have included all the items requested for the class you are entering, on each form.

Music can be obtained from Dawson's Music (11-15 Market St. Huddersfield, tel. 01484 427455), or from Hot Banana Music Shop (7 Norridge Bottom, Holmfirth, tel. 01484 767535), or online from www.musicroom.com See also our website - a few testpieces are freely downloadable.

It is hoped that this syllabus is free from errors. However any updates or corrections will be maintained on the syllabus published on our website, where there are additional details relevant to some classes: www.hmf.org.uk

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. ENTRIES

- a) An official entry form must be completed for each entry. All official entry forms, accompanied by the entry fee, must reach the secretary by September 12th 2017.
- b) A copy of own choice test pieces must accompany the entry form where stated in the syllabus.
- c) The Committee reserves the right to refuse any entry.
- d) Communications concerning entries should be addressed to the Honorary Secretary (s.a.e. appreciated for written replies).

2. COMPETITORS

- a) The Festival is primarily for amateurs. Professional musicians may be allowed to compete in classes for which they have no professional qualifications and from which they derive no income, e.g. a teacher of instrumental music may be allowed to compete in vocal classes.
- b) Competitors must adhere to time limits where stated in the syllabus. The committee reserves the right to penalise entrants exceeding time limits.
- c) Failure to observe any of the regulations stipulated or failure to comply with general regulations may render competitors liable to disqualification.
- d) Any enquiries, complaints, protests or other representations concerning any aspect of the festival must be made to the Honorary Secretary.
- e) Competitors must not interfere with the timetable. Each competitor will, for each class, be issued with a ticket stating the date, time and order of competing. Competitors must report to the competitors' steward ten minutes before the start of the class. Competitors failing to answer to their names when called upon to do so may forfeit the right to enter in that class. The Honorary Secretary, upon appeal, may use her discretion and allow defaulters to compete.
- f) Conductors are not allowed to sing with their own choirs.

3. CLASSES

- a) The order in which classes are held and in which entrants are to compete is decided by the Committee shortly after the closing date for entries. The committee reserves the right to alter the published order.
- b) In all classes, test pieces must be performed in the key and from the edition stated in the syllabus. No alteration of own choice pieces is allowed after the closing date for entries.

4. PRIZES

- a) The decision of the Committee in the awarding of prizes is final.
- b) Prizes may be withheld if there are insufficient entries, or on the recommendation of the Adjudicator with Committee approval.
- c) Prizes are awarded, normally, to the competitors gaining the highest mark or total of marks in each class.
- d) Prizes will be presented during, or at the close of, the festival.
- e) All trophies, cups and rosebowls are held for one year only and must be returned to the Honorary Secretary by August 31st 2018. A receipt and safe-custody undertaking must be given for each.

5. ACCOMPANISTS

- a) Choirs and ensembles are allowed to use their own accompanists.
- b) Competitors in classes 1, 2, 3, 35, 36, 38 and 39 may bring their own accompanists, who may be professional or amateur, providing a declaration is made on the entry form. Note that the pianist in Class 34a (Lieder) MUST be amateur.
- c) In all other classes an official accompanist is provided and no other may be used.

6. ADJUDICATOR'S REPORTS

- a) These are provided free of charge.
 - b) At least ten minutes must be allowed to elapse at the end of each class before requests for reports are made.
7. The decision of the Committee in all questions and disputes arising out of, or not provided for by these general regulations, is final.

Entry forms or any queries, and return of trophies, cups or rosebowls should be sent to The Honorary Secretary, Mrs. K. Kingdom, 158, Greenfield Road, Holmfirth, West Yorkshire HD9 2LP, tel. 01484 683157, email secretary@hmf.org.uk.

TEST PIECES: All set test pieces, other than where mentioned, were available commercially at the time of printing. There are further details on the Festival's website, www.hmf.org.uk where any corrections to the syllabus will also be indicated. In case of difficulty, please contact Geoffrey Lockwood (tel. 01484 688487 or email info@hmf.org.uk).

OWN CHOICE copies: Competitors who present themselves without accompanist's and/or Adjudicator's copies may be disqualified. The copy for the accompanist must be sent with the entry form. Competitors must observe the legal requirements governing the use of photocopies.

PRIZE MONEY will be awarded only in choir classes and class 38.

ENTRY FEES: Classes 1 to 11, 13 to 22, 37, £4.00 per entrant, maximum £9.00 for three or more entries by one competitor. Classes 12, 22, 24 to 27, 29 to 33, 34b, £5.50 per entrant for the first two classes; £13.00 maximum charge for three or more entries. Class 34a £4.00 per entrant; members of this class who have already entered two or more classes will be eligible for the £13 maximum fee. Classes 36, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 £5.00 per group. Class 38, £6.00 independently of any other classes.

Details in this syllabus are thought to be correct at the time of printing. Any amendments necessary will be published on the Festival's Website, www.hmf.org.uk

Holmfirth Musical Festival is affiliated to the British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech, of which Her Majesty the Queen is Patron.

Holmfirth Musical Festival - Child Protection Policy

Holmfirth Musical Festival has adopted the CPP stated below, published by the British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech, of which it is a member Festival.

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year.

The Federation, and our member Festivals, are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them.

This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

Delivered in partnership with

Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone

The Federation and its member Festivals use the following policies and procedures to create Safer Festivals for everyone:

1. A single, definitive Child Protection Policy adopted by all Federation Festivals.
2. One or more designated Festival Safeguarding Officers (FSO) appointed for each Federation Festival. Holmfirth Musical Festival's FSO is Mrs. K. Kingdom, tel. 01484 683157.
3. Best practice advice in the form of Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection leaflets, with support and training for all Festival staff and volunteers. Including clear reporting procedures for anyone with a concern about a child.
4. Appropriate recruitment and induction procedures for all new Festival staff and volunteers responsible for providing safe environments for everyone attending / performing at a Federation Festival.
5. All Festival personnel wear an official Festival badge and may be approached with any problem. All teachers/parents/guardians/carers are asked to report all incidents of any nature to anyone wearing a badge. All reported incidents will be handled in accordance with the Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection best practice advice. In addition we will ensure the availability of a quiet area / room where concerns can be expressed in private.
6. For the duration of a Festival all teachers/parents/guardians/carers are responsible for the continuous care and supervision of their own children/pupils. If they are unable to attend personally, they must delegate their responsibilities to an identified adult and ensure that their children/pupils are aware of the identity and name of the person responsible for their care. This includes supervision throughout all Festival venues, practice and changing rooms that may be provided. The Festival cannot take responsibility for any property left unattended.
7. No unauthorised photography, audio or video recording of children and young people is allowed in the performance areas at our Festivals. Where parents/guardians/carers do not wish photos to be taken at all, then the responsible adult attending should ensure that their child is not included in official photos.
8. Some children and vulnerable adults may have specific needs in order to take part. If this is the case we ask the responsible teachers/parents/guardians/carers to contact the Festival organisers prior to arrival. The Festival actively seeks wherever possible to meet these needs, but must know beforehand in order to prepare support – or to advise that help cannot be provided on this occasion.
9. The Festival's Child Protection Policy and approach to Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone is published explicitly in our Syllabus, Programme and on our website. By completing and signing the entry form all parents / guardians / carers and teachers of competitors under 18 (or vulnerable adults of any age) confirm that they give (or have obtained) the necessary consents for the competitors to take part in the Festival. Without consent the entry to the Festival cannot be accepted.

OUR ADJUDICATOR 2017

Marilynne Davies

Marilynne's experience embraces performance, education and conducting and she was until recently Head of the School of Performance at the College of Ripon and York St. John – a post that included Music, Dance, Drama, Film and Television. She now has a busy freelance career as an adjudicator for the British and International Federation of Festivals at national and international festivals, as a voice consultant, teacher and conductor, and as a leader of a variety of workshops. Her experience in teaching ranges from nursery to post-graduate levels and she has been external examiner and assessor in performance for a number of universities at the graduate and postgraduate level.

She has adjudicated for us at Holmfirth several times previously and we look forward to welcoming her back again.

Class 38 : Competition for the Rotary Club of Holmfirth Millennium Trophy.

This class, in its seventeenth year, was originated by the Rotary Club of Holmfirth, who kindly donated the trophy and ten years' prizes. A prize of £250, donated anonymously, will also be awarded to the winner of this class. Designed to encourage young musicians originally in the Rotary Club area to follow their pursuit of musical excellence, it is now open to competitors who satisfy the following rules:

- Resident for at least two out of the past eight years in the geographical area of radius 7 miles from the centre of Holmfirth, OR have previously been competitors at this Festival on at least three occasions.
- Aged between 14 and 25 years of age on October 1st 2017.
- Has not previously won this trophy.
- Agreement that the prize money will be used to further their musical studies. A letter should be submitted with the entry outlining:
 1. the musical background of the Competitor (indicating membership of choirs/orchestras/bands and for how long, any awards or other successes, any particular musical interests);
 2. the address(es) of the Competitor during the past eight years;
 3. the proposed use of the prize (for example, payment of tuition fees, purchase of appropriate music, attendance fees on training courses etc.: payment of the prize will be conditional on its appropriate use);
 4. a balanced own-choice programme not exceeding 15 minutes total duration which the Competitor will present. Details of pieces to be played / sung should be given, including titles, composers, and sources (i.e. name of work from which the piece is taken) if relevant.

Entries will be considered by the Committee who reserve the right not to accept entries unlikely to reach an appropriate standard.

Competitors may be either vocalists or instrumentalists.

Competitors may bring their own accompanists, or may use the services of the Festival's official accompanist. In the latter case, accompanist's copies should be sent with the entry form, and arrangements will be made if possible to rehearse with the accompanist before the Competition.

It is likely (but depends on the number of competitors) that the class will be held on Saturday evening, October 21st 2017.

Entry fee: £6.00.
